The Liturgy of the Palms

Officiant Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord:
People Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

Officiant Let us pray.
Assist us mercifully with your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospel

Mark 11:1-11a

Deacon Horace Whyte

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.'" They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

"Hosanna!
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Anthem Hosanna filio David Tomás Luis de Victoria (1548-1611) Hosanna filio David. Benedictus qui Hosanna to the son of David. Blessed venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in is the one who comes in the name of excelsis. Amen. the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Amen.

Officiant Let us go forth in peace;
People In the name of Christ. Amen.

The Procession

Brian Meagher, bagpipes

The procession will go down York Avenue to 73rd Street, across to First Avenue, up to 75th Street, east to York Avenue, and return to Epiphany.

The congregation gathers at the closed church doors.

At the Church Doors

Celebrant Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
People Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

Celebrant Let us pray.
Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Entrance Procession

The choir enters the church, followed by the congregation, crucifer and clergy.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The Word of God

First Reading

Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord GOD has given me
the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he wakens –
wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.
The Lord GOD has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backward.
I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.
The Lord GOD helps me;
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame;
he who vindicates me is near.
Who will contend with me?
Let us stand up together.
Who are my adversaries?
Let them confront me.
It is the Lord GOD who helps me;
who will declare me guilty?

Psalm 31:9-16

In te, Domine, speravi

Tone VII.3

The people repeat the refrain after the choir, and then sing the refrain where indicated.

Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; *
my eye is consumed with sorrow, and also my throat and my belly.
For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing; *
my strength fails me because of affliction, and my bones are consumed.
I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbors, a dismay to those of my acquaintance; *
when they see me in the street they avoid me. REFRAIN

I am forgotten like one who is dead, out of mind; *
 I am as useless as a broken pot.
 For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is all around; *
 they put their heads together against me;
 they plot to take my life. REFRAIN

But as for me, I have trusted in you, O LORD. *
 I have said, "You are my God.
 My times are in your hand; *
 rescue me from the hand of my enemies,
 and from those who persecute me.
 Make your face to shine upon your servant, *
 and in your loving-kindness save me." REFRAIN

Second Reading Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God
 as something to be exploited,
 but emptied himself,
 taking the form of a slave,
 being born in human likeness.
 And being found in human form,
 he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death – even death on a cross.
 Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus
 every knee should bend,
 in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Offertory Anthem At the cry of the first bird

Gilbert M. Martin (b. 1941)

At the cry of the first bird,
They began to crucify thee,
O cheek like a swan.
It was not right ever to cease lamenting;
It was like parting of day from night.
Ah, though sore the suffering put upon the body of Mary's Son,

Sorer to him was the grief that was upon her for his sake.
At the cry of the first bird,
They began to crucify thee,
O cheek like a swan.

Eucharistic Prayer A

The Lord be with you. And al-so with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. For our sins he was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; and, by his suffering and death, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus S-124

New Plainsong • David Hurd (b. 1950)

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est.
Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The people may remain standing or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Celebrant Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

ta - kest a - way the sins of the world,
grant us thy peace.

Prayer of Humble Access

BCP, page 337

All

We do not presume to come to this your Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your Table. But you are the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

At the Communion

All baptized persons are welcome to receive by standing or kneeling at the altar rail. Children are welcome at the altar rail, and parents should indicate whether a small child receives. Please receive the wafer of bread in your open and outstretched hands. Take hold of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips. If you prefer to receive by intinction, please dip the wafer in the wine, or offer the wafer to the Chalice Bearer who will dip it in the wine for you.

Communion Anthem Ave verum

Michael Sitton (b. 1958)

Ave verum corpus natum de Maria virgine, vere passum, immolatum
in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum
unda fluxit et sanguine; Esto nobis praegustatum in mortis examine.
O clemens, O pie,
O Jesu, fili Mariae. Amen.

Hail, true body,
born of the virgin Mary,
who truly suffered and was sacrificed on the cross for us, from whose pierced side
flowed water and blood;
be for us a foretaste of heaven
at the hour of our death.
O merciful, O gracious,
O Jesus, son of Mary. Amen.

Sending Forth of Lay Eucharistic Visitors to Memorial Sloan-Kettering, New York-Presbyterian, and the homebound

All

Janet Boe, Louise Bozorth, Helen Goodkin, Marsha Harper, and Cynthia Rockland, in the name of this congregation, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup. Amen.

Post-communion Prayer

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Welcome to the Church of the Epiphany

If you are new to Epiphany, welcome! If you would like to stay connected, please fill out a welcome card and place it in the offering plate, or give it to an usher or clergy person. We hope you leave inspired and refreshed and that you return soon. Please stay for coffee hour at the rear of the church following the service, and look for a welcomer wearing a purple and blue nametag if you have any questions or just want to see a friendly face!

Sunday School for children ages 3-10 begins at 10:30 am downstairs in the purple classroom. They return to join the service after the offering.

Children of any age are welcome at worship. Feel free to sit near the front of the church, left of the center aisle, so they can see and follow what is going on. Crayons and a paper based on the scripture for today are available from an usher. If your child becomes restless, we also have a quiet area in the rear of the nave with a sofa and soft toys. Please feel free to go there where you may supervise their quiet play and continue to participate in the service.

If you have toddlers with you, childcare is provided for children under age three on Sundays from 9:30 am to 12 noon in the nursery downstairs in the green room.

Easter Vigil Reception

Saturday • March 31 • after the 7:30pm service

It's time for our festive Easter Vigil reception! Can you help by bringing a bottle of champagne or sparkling cider? How about some great chocolates, cupcakes, or other festive treats? The Great Vigil of Easter on Saturday, March 31, at 7:30pm is at the center of the entire Christian year and the climax of the liturgies of the Three Days (Triduum). The reception after the service celebrates the resurrection of Christ and the end of our Lenten fasting. Help make it memorable by contributing to the festivities.

Welcoming all, we are building a dedicated Christian community that seeks to know God and to serve others.

Epiphany Under the Stars Planning Meeting

TODAY • March 25 • 12:00 noon

Epiphany needs YOU! Planning is in full swing for the 2018 Epiphany Under the Stars gala, which benefits our weekly homeless dinner program on Wednesday nights. If you are interested in volunteering your time and/or efforts to help raise money for this important program, please attend our next planning meeting today, March 25, at 12:00 noon. Please contact Kirsten Plonner at 908-247-1939 or kirsten.plonner@gmail.com with any questions or if you can't attend but would like to help out. And put the gala on your calendar for Friday, May 18!

Newcomer Brunch

Sunday • April 22 • 12:00 noon

If you're new to Epiphany, we'd love to welcome you and help you get to know the church and its people! Join us for brunch and fellowship on Sunday, April 22 after the 10:30 service. RSVP to Kathryn Dunham at kidunham@philanthropynewyork.org.

Luke and the Good Samaritan

Sunday, April 15 at noon

Many of us have been reading the Gospel of Luke during Lent as part of the Good Book Club. All are invited to a Bible Study of one of the most famous stories from that Gospel: the Good Samaritan. Join us for an exploration of the question, "Who is my neighbor" through the text and our own lives.

Holy Women and Holy Men: Richard Allen

Richard Allen was born into slavery in 1760 in Germantown, Pennsylvania. Like many enslaved persons of the period, Allen was permitted to hire himself out for extra work. Allen later purchased his legal freedom with the earnings from hired work.

In 1786, Allen became a lay preacher at St. George's United Methodist Church, but was restricted to preaching at early morning services. As black membership increased, the vestry decided to build a segregated section for black worshippers. Allen, along with his friend Absalom Jones, resented the segregation of his fellow black Christians, and in 1787, Allen and Jones led black worshippers out of St. George's in protest.

While Jones and many of those associated with him joined the Episcopal Church, Allen wanted to continue in his Methodist religion. He had been cooperating with Bishop Francis Asbury to spread Methodism among African Americans, and in 1794 he founded Bethel Church in Philadelphia. When the newly formed African Methodist Episcopal Church declared its independence, Allen became its first Bishop.

Throughout his life, Richard Allen remained an advocate of freedom for all people, even operating a station on the underground railroad for escaped slaves. His ardent belief in the unity of all who belonged to Christ is expressed in one of the many hymns he wrote:

*Why do they then appear so mean
And why so much despised?
Because of their rich robes unseen
The world is not appriz'd.*

Epiphany Under the Stars

You're invited!

Please join us on Friday, May 18th at 6:30pm for the Epiphany Under the Stars dinner gala -- which raises money for our Wednesday evening dinner program that is responsible for feeding hundreds of homeless New Yorkers each month. In addition to providing a hot meal, the program also offers other forms of guidance and aid to help them.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you find yourself in any of these situations. Our Rector, our Deacons, and our lay ministers are all ready and willing to help and serve.

If you would like to receive Holy Communion at home or in the hospital...

Epiphany's Lay Eucharistic Visitors minister by bringing the sacrament of Holy Communion to those who are not able to be physically present in church. The church office or any of Epiphany's clergy can help you schedule a visit.

For any of these kinds of assistance, call the church office at 212-737-2720, or email redall@epiphanync.org.
