June 2017

The official newsletter of the Church of the Epiphany

Welcoming all, we are building a dedicated Christian community that seeks to know God and to serve others.

Calling All Amateurs

The Reverend Dr. Barrie Bates

Volunteer: from the Latin voluntarius meaning “voluntary” – someone who makes a choice to do something (or not to do it).

Amateur: from the Latin amator, or lover.

In this sense, the disciples of Jesus were amateurs. They did what they did not because it made them feel important or good inside, not because it relieved their guilt or got them any reward, not even because they knew there was a tremendous need – but because they were in love. In love with God, in love with life, in love with love itself.

Volunteers seek rewards, amateurs engage in ministry. Volunteers insist on control, amateurs seek the guidance of the Spirit. Volunteers may someday choose not to give, lovers rarely stop loving.

So the question for all of us is simply this: are you a volunteer or an amateur? The church already has more than enough volunteers; what we need are more amateurs! ✕

The Story of Anglicanism

Sundays • June 4, 11, and 25 • 12:00pm

led by the Rev. Dr. Barrie Bates

We have revised our schedule for this three-part video series, which was narrated by Michael York as a youngster. Each part has a video of about twenty minutes in duration – and you need not have seen the first two to make sense of the third! We’ll follow each presentation with robust conversation about where we have come from and what it means to be Anglican in the twenty-first century.

June 4 - Part 1: Ancient and Medieval Foundations

June 11 - Part 2: Reformation and Its Consequences

June 25 - Part 3: Creating a Global Family

June 4 is Pentecost

Each year, the Church concludes the great fifty days of Easter by celebrating Whitsunday, or the feast of Pentecost. After Jesus’ resurrection and ascension, the disciples experienced the Holy Spirit, who came from heaven like the rush of a violent wind – as described in the Acts of the Apostles. The Bible tells us that “divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.” It sounds like quite the experience!

In a way, Pentecost is the birthday of the church. To celebrate, plan to wear something red on Sunday, June 4. Red is not only the proper liturgical color of the day, and the color for the Spirit, but it also will help us imagine what it would be like to be in the midst of such fire, and yet not consumed by it. ✕

Parish Barbeque

Sunday • June 18 • after the 10:30am Service

Plan to stay after the 10:30am service on Sunday, June 18 for a parish barbeque in the Mullins Garden.

Grillers are needed! If you can help grill food for any of our summer barbecues, please contact Deborah Wilburn (dajwilburn@yahoo.com) and let her know. Barbecues will be held on June 18, July 2, August 13, and September 3. Two grillers at each barbeque would be ideal.

Music Notes for June

Larry J. Long, Organist & Choirmaster

Epiphany Choir sings for the final time in the 2016-2017 season on Sunday, June 11. Cherub Choir and Children's Choir sang their last Sunday on May 14. It has been a very exciting year, with lots of great music from all our singers. We've had the largest Cherub Choir ever with 10 singers, and consistent and strong singing from the 7 members of the Children's Choir. Check out all the photos (thanks, Chris Darringer!) from May 14 on page 6 of this issue of the Manifest, and please thank all of our choristers when you see them.

Cherub Choir

Children's Choir

Elle Barker, Frances Darringer, Theo Darringer, Jacob George, Genevieve Oudens, Evangeline Stewart-Dale, and Chloe Vulpone

Epiphany Choir

Soprano Kate Bullock, Nancy Cochran,
Amy Slingerland, Joy Tamayo
Alto Terry Bayorek, Louise Bozorth, Carolyn Hale,
Kirsten Ott, Savannah Scott, Frances Wilson
Tenor Richard Highfield, Larry Johnson,
Mark Sanderlin
Bass Benjamin Amoah, Alex Bonnin, Jason Rios

Sunday, June 4, is the Day of Pentecost. For the prelude today, the Epiphany Choir sings the chant hymn Come, thou holy Spirit bright (hymnal no. 226), alternating verses with the organ settings by Gaston Litaize (1909-1992). The appointed verses of Psalm 104 are led by the choir in a setting by Mark Mummert (b. 1965). At the offering, Barrie Cabena's (b. 1933) challenging (for the choir!) The Day of Pentecost will be sung. Thomas Tallis' (1505?-1585) O Lord, give thy Holy Spirit is sung at the communion.

Barrie Cabena's The Day of Pentecost was the winner of the 2004-2006 American Guild of Organists/ECS Publishing Award in Choral Composition. He is a naturalized Canadian citizen, born in Melbourne, Australia. He worked in London and Kitchener, and is now retired and resides in Guelph, all cities in Ontario.

Holy Trinity Sunday, June 11, is the last Sunday of the season for the Epiphany Choir. The choral introit is Glory to the Father by Richard Proulx (1937-2010), a setting of the Gloria Patri text. John Karl Hirten (b. 1956) wrote a setting of the Martin Luther hymn Isaiah in a vision did of old (Jesaia dem Propheten), which will be sung at the offering. At the communion the choir sings Let all mortal flesh keep silence, by the British composer Edward C. Bairstow (1874-1946).

The text to Isaiah in a vision did of old is a metrical adaptation of Isaiah 6:1-4:

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. (NRSV translation)

Luther's version, translated by Martin H. Franzmann (1907-1976):

Isaiah in a vision did of old
The Lord of hosts enthroned on high behold:
His splendid train was wide outspread until
Its streaming glory did the temple fill.
Above his throne the shining seraphim
With six-fold wings did reverence unto him:
With two each seraph hid his glorious face,
And two about his feet did interlace,
And with the other two he soared on high;
And one unto another thus did cry:
"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts!
His glory filleth all the earth!"
The beams and lintels at their crying shook,
And all the house was filled with billowing smoke.

Our first Sunday for Summer Choir is June 25! Please consider singing on one of the Summer Choir dates over the course of the summer. No RSVP or prior singing experience is necessary – just show up with a desire to sing. Our combined voices will inspire us all as we create beautiful music together! See the box below for the Summer Choir dates.

Sing in a Choir at Epiphany

Thursday Rehearsals begin in the Fall on September 14

Sing in Summer Choir

Summer Choir is our "anyone-can-sing" choir. Show up at 9:45 to rehearse the psalm and an easy anthem, and then sing at the 10:30am service. You've never sung in a choir? Now is your chance! Come and give it a try.

There are four Sundays over the course of the summer that the choir will sing:

June 25 • July 16 • August 6 and 27

Plan now to come and join in singing inspiring music to enrich our worship at Epiphany.

"I want that at MY funeral!"

Plan your own funeral and have fun doing it!

Have you ever said to someone, "I want that sung at my funeral. It's so beautiful."? Many of us have. Some of us have also said, "Don't you DARE do that at my funeral – I hate that!"

The thing is, your service won't include things you want – and might include things you don't! – unless you talk to someone who can actually make it happen.

For a variety of reasons, most people don't get around to talking specifically about what they would like at their funeral. Then when they actually do die, the surviving family and friends must make choices on their behalf at a time when the grieving process makes decision-making far more emotional and difficult.

You can help your family and friends out by making your wishes known ahead of time.

The Rev. Jennifer Reddall and Larry Long are both willing and able to meet with you and help guide you through the options for your funeral or memorial service. We will keep your desires on file, with that information ready when needed. You can modify them at any time if you change your mind about something.

Do it now, while we can smile, cringe, laugh, and actually enjoy the process. Your family and friends will appreciate it when the time actually comes!

Email Larry (long@EpiphanyNYC.org) to set up a time to meet, or call the church office at 212-737-2720.

Did we miss your birthday?

We keep birthdates in our parish member database to provide us with the names of those whose birthdays we remember in the prayers each Sunday. If we've missed your birthday, it may be that we don't have yours on file – we are missing quite a few. If you'd like to be remembered on your birthday in the prayers, please send your birthdate (the year is not necessary) to Larry Long (call or email him long@EpiphanyNYC.org) in the office and we'll add it to your record so we can all celebrate and wish you a "Happy birthday" next time!

You Can Host Hospitality!

Sundays after the 10:30am service

Each Sunday after the 10:30am service we have coffee, tea, and snacks. Sign up on the sheet posted at the back of the church. If you've never done it, it's pretty simple. The church provides the coffee, tea, and other drinks.

You can either:

- 1) Purchase or make snacks yourself (cheese and crackers, fruit, small sandwiches, veggies/chips and dips, etc.) and leave them in the kitchen downstairs. Our Sunday morning sexton Fahmida will set it up; or
- 2) You can donate $50 and the church will pick up the food.

Hospitality may be provided in memory of a loved one, in honor of someone, or in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary, or other event if you wish.

For Children on Sundays

Childcare Available • 9:30am-12:00pm

Sunday School • ages 8-12 • 10:00am-10:30am
ages 3-7 • 10:30am-11:00am

The younger children join the worship service at the Peace. Epiphany employs the "Living the Good News" curriculum, which teaches a Bible story from the same lectionary that the adults are hearing during the service. Marilyn Castillo is our Sunday School Director.

Sunday Acolyte Training • 10:00am

For young people ages 8 and older. Acolytes carry torches (the tall processional candles) or a processional cross, and assist in leading the service in other ways. Call the church office to sign up for training.

Plan Your Next Party or Meeting at Epiphany

Plan your child's next birthday party, special event, or building meeting at the Church of the Epiphany. Choose from either our large indoor space in the Parish Hall, or the enchanting outdoor Mullins Garden.

For a child's birthday, turn the space into a mystical fairyland, an action-filled sporting complex, a magical carnival, a pirate adventure playground, or anywhere your imagination will take you. Your opportunities are endless! Email birthdays@EpiphanyNYC.org for an appointment to see the space. Party planning available upon request.

Contacts during the Rector's Sabbatical Through July 21, 2017

The Wardens: Chris Abelt and Kathryn Dunham are officially "in charge" of all things at Epiphany. They will be assisted by the Deacons, Anne Auchincloss and Horace Whyte, in providing pastoral care (ably assisted by our Pastoral Visitors). If you are in the hospital, or in some sort of need, contact them first.

The Staff: In addition to their ordinary responsibilities, Laura Noggle will be handling most day to day administrative issues; and Larry Long will be continuing with Epiphany's weekly email communications.

The Supply Clergy: The Rev. Dr. Barrie Bates (April-June) and the Rev. Ed Johnston (July) will be leading Sunday services. They are not, in general, going to be in the office or working at Epiphany during the week.

A whole host of Vestry and parish lay leaders are taking on additional responsibilities. If you have a question – call the office and they will refer you to the appropriate person.
